A Peek At What We Are Learning

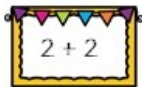

Reading

We will work on retelling and comparing/contrasting this month as we read several different versions of The Gingerbread Man. We'll also start our mid-year reading assessments on Istation this week.

Writing

We'll write our Track Out News and continue working on stretching our stories over three pages.

Math

We'll be working on our December calendars and doing some fun winter-themed math centers! We'll also be discussing some shapes as we gear up for our gingerbread houses!

Science

&

Social Studies

We will be learning about needs and wants and talking about holiday traditions around the world.
