

Our Classroom News

January 13th-24th, 2020 (a two-weeker!)

Reminders

Report Cards come home Monday. Please be sure to remove the report card and send back the envelope only. Our small reading groups have officially launched! Be on the lookout for book pouches. Students will be responsible for reading the books inside them and bringing them back the very next day. No School 1/20 - Happy Birthday Dr. King!

A Note From Mrs. Spivey

Word Wall Words: am, are, going, she, at, on
Words to Practice: I, the, my, me, see, to, go, a, we, is, can, like, it, you, up, and, play, come, for, here, look, do
When your child practices these high frequency words at home pay special attention to correct letter formation. Efficient letter formation is an important gift that we can gently, yet firmly help our kids acquire in kindergarten

A Peek At What We Are Learning

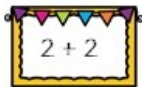

Reading

Students have enjoyed and are adjusting to our more rigorous schedule of three rounds of literacy centers. Small groups have kicked off as well!

Writing

We will continue our small moments 3-page stories and do some fun seasonal writing as well!

Math

We have kicked off our Shapes Unit. Students are enjoying filling up their

Science

Important Shapes booklets and will be starting shapes math centers soon.

&

Social Studies

We will continue learning about needs, wants, goods, and services. We will be learning about Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and begin a unit on maps as well.
