A Peek At What We Are Learning

Reading

We have started our Daily 5 Literacy Centers! We Read to Self, Listen to Reading (on the computer), do Word Work, have a Writing Center, and a Make-a-Book Center. Once we gain a little more independence we can begin Reading to Someone and I can start pulling guided reading groups!

Writing

We are gearing up to start Writer's Workshop. We are continuing to work on our handwriting as well. Ask your child about Letterland- the magical place we go for phonics instruction!

Math

We will be learning a little bit about measurement and continuing to use Anno's Counting Book to make counting books of our own!

Science
